ULI Oklahoma - Emerging Trends and CREC's Forecast 2010: The New Normal

Event Start Date: 02/02/2010 8:00 am
Event End Date: 02/02/2010 1:00 pm
Locations: The Skirvin Hilton

Emerging Trends in Real Estate is a trends and forecast publication with a 30-year history, and is the most highly-regarded and widely-read forecast report in the real estate industry. Emerging Trends in Real Estate 2010, undertaken jointly by ULI and PricewaterhouseCoopers, provides an outlook on U.S. investment and development trends, real estate finance and capital markets, property sectors, metropolitan areas, and other real estate issues. The report draws on formal and informal surveys of real estate executives, investors, developers, and market experts around the U.S., including survey responses from over 400 real estate executives and personal interviews with over 150 industry leaders.

Featured Speaker: Dean Schwanke, PricewaterhouseCoopers

Once Emerging Trends concludes at 10:30 am there will be a short break before CREC's Forecast begins.

Forecast is an annual real estate conference presented by the Commercial Real Estate Council of Oklahoma City (CREC). Forecast provides a comprehensive overview of the metropolitan Oklahoma City & Tulsa commercial real estate markets, including all factors influencing emerging trends in real estate & capital markets.
